

Project mark distribution

- First presentation 10 marks
- Second presentation 10 marks
- Third presentation 25 marks
- Prototype 25 marks
- Thesis 30 marks
- For study projects since there is no prototype, the final report will carry 55 marks

Table 1: Marking scheme for Oral presentations:

Presentation skills	Poor	Fair	Good	V. Good	Excellent
Effective Introduction Introduced speaker(s)? Objectives clear? Main points outlined?	1	2	3	4	5
Preparation Was there a logical structure? Best use made of time available? Level of professionalism?	1	2	3	4	5
Speech and interest Good delivery, no annoying mannerisms? Fluent, enthusiastic? Ability to hold audience interest?	1	2	3	4	5
Content
Knowledge of subject Main points emphasized? Comprehension of material? Summaries used?	1	2	3	4	5

Discussion Handling Were questions cleared up? Were questions avoided? Was closing statement effective?	1	2	3	4	5
					Total (max. 25)

The following criteria and marks are used for assessing the written report:

Table 2: Assessment Criteria for final report

Category	Marks
General appearance/professionalism	5
Title page	5
Table of contents	5
Figures and tables	5
Section headings and subheadings	5
References in appropriate format	10
Informative summary	10
Introduction	10
Methodology	10
Conclusions	10
Development of content	25

